

ANNUAL/PERENNIAL VINE

American Hog Peanut

Amphicarpaea bracteata

Silver Spotted Skipper

Northern Cloudywing

Arcadia
NATIVES

Northern Cloudywing

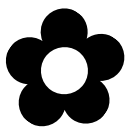

Silver Spotted Skipper

- Nitrogen fixing (legume family)
- Blooms purple/pink, Aug-Sept
- Forms interesting seed pods
- Seeds eaten by Bobwhite, Ruffed Grouse, & other wildlife

HELPFUL TIPS:

This vine stays dainty and lightweight making it ideal for climbing mailboxes, bird feeder posts, or porch railings.

COMPANIONS: Jewelweed, Swamp Milkweed, Tall Meadow Rue, Cutleaf Coneflower, Black Cohosh, Golden Groundsel, Great Blue Lobelia, Boneset

Late Summer

Supports Pollinators

Hosts Several Lepodoptera

Seeds For Birds

Twining Vine

Can Reseed Annually

Height: 1-5 feet
Spacing: 2-3 feet

Soil: Avg, Rich, Clay, Loam, Sand
Wet, Medium-Wet, Medium