

PERENNIAL

Whorled Milkweed

Asclepias verticillata

MONARCH HABITAT
CERTIFICATIONS

Arcadia
NATIVES

- Tolerates poor, dry soil
- Blooms white, July-Sept
- Use in borders & on slopes
- Important host plant
- Has narrow, whorled leaves

HELPFUL TIPS:

Flowers best in full sun.
Plant in well-draining soil.
Spreads vigorously by seed
and underground rhizomes.

COMPANIONS: Butterfly Milkweed, Lyreleaf Sage, Side-Oats Grama, Purple Lovegrass, Little Bluestem, Coreopsis, Purple Coneflower, Aromatic Aster

Mid-Late
Summer

Pollinator
Favorite

Deer
Resistant

Monarch & Moth
Host Plant

Front of Border

Drought
Tolerant

Colony
Forming

Height: 1-2 feet
Spacing: 1-2 feet

Soil: Avg, Loam, Clay, Sandy
Medium, Medium-Dry, Dry