

Amethyst Shooting Star Dodecatheon amethystinum

PA SPRING
EPHEMERALS

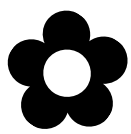

- Has nodding, fragrant flowers
- Blooms purple/pink, April-May
- Goes dormant in summertime
- Isolated populations exist in

Lower Susquehanna & Schuylkill River Valleys

MORE INFO:

An uncommon find in the wild. Small populations at risk of becoming endangered.

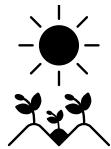

COMPANIONS: Virginia Bluebells, Wood Poppy, Dutchman's Breeches, Ferns, Trilliums, Blue Cohosh, Trout Lily, Hairy Wood Mint, Blue Violets, Wood Poppy

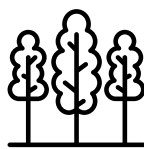

Early
Spring

Threatened
Species

Dormant
in Summer

Woodland
Border

Rock
Garden

Fragrant
Flowers

Slow To Establish

Height: 4-18 inches
Spacing: 6-12 inches

Soil: Lime, Rocky, Clay, Loam
Med-Wet, Med, Med-Dry