

PERENNIAL

Hollow Joe Pye Weed

Eutrochium fistulosum

STROLLING GARDEN
INSPIRATION

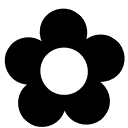

Arcadia
NATIVES

- Largest Joe Pye species
- Blooms mauve, July-Sept
- Vanilla-scented flowers
- Hollow stems give refuge to overwintering insects

HELPFUL TIPS:

May require support in shaded conditions. Can tolerate seasonal flooding & wet, soggy soil. It is a substantial plant that needs room.

COMPANIONS: Cutleaf Coneflower, Boneset, Blue Mistflower, Monkeyflower, Blue Vervain, Cup Plant, Helen's Flower, Ironweed, Black Cohosh, Coreopsis

Late Summer
Flowers

Deer
Resistant

Pollinator
Favorite

Bird
Friendly

Super
Sized

Rain
Garden

Colony
Forming

Height: 4-10 feet
Spacing: 3-4 feet

Soil: Rich, Clay, Loam, Sand
Wet, Medium-Wet