

EPHEMERAL

Sharp-Lobed Hepatica

Hepatica acutiloba

- Long-lived once established
- Blue/white/pink, March-May
- Goes dormant in summertime
- Has nectarless flowers
- AKA Liverwort or Liverleaf

Early Spring
Flowers

Pollinated by Small Bees

Seeds for Chipmunks

Pollen Feeds
Flower Flies

Woodland
Garden

Evergreen
Foliage

Very Slow
to Establish

Height: 6-8 inches

Spacing: 3-9 inches

Soil: Rich, Loam, Calcareous
Medium, Medium-Dry