

BIENNIAL

Great Waterleaf

Hydrophyllum appendiculatum

PA SPRING
WILDFLOWERS

Arcadia
NATIVES

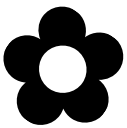

- Ideal for woodland borders
- Blooms purple, May-July
- Has attractive foliage that resembles maple leaves
- Showiest waterleaf species

HELPFUL TIPS:

May go dormant in hot dry summers. Basal leaves first year. Flowers & seeds second year. Reseeds readily. Colony forming.

COMPANIONS: Mayapple, Wild Strawberry, Lady Fern, Dutchman's Breeches, Spring Beauty, Maidenhair Fern, Toothwort, Blue Cohosh, Columbine, Honewort

Spring
Flowers

Attracts
Native Bees

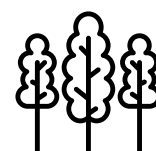

Pairs Well
With Ferns

Attractive
Foliage

Reseeds
Readily

Woodland
Gardens

Colony-Forming
Groundcover

Height: 1-2 feet
Spacing: 6-12 inches

Soil: Rich, Humusy
Medium