

Anise Hyssop

Agastache foeniculum

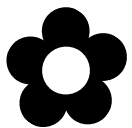

Arcadia
NATIVES

- Licorice-scented leaves
- Blooms purple, June-Sept
- Edible; use in teas/jellies
- Fast spreading; reseeds readily
- AKA Blue Giant Hyssop

HELPFUL TIP:

Combine with other aromatic species like Mt. Mint and Bee Balm to create a deer/rabbit resistant flower bed!

COMPANIONS: Purple Coneflower, Bee Balm, Black-Eyed Susan, Foxglove, Beardtongue, Mountain Mint, Gray Goldenrod, Butterfly Weed, Little Bluestem

Summer
Flowers

Pollinator
Favorite

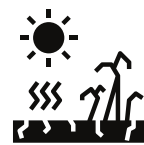

Deer
Resistant

Attracts Hummingbirds

Herb
Garden

Drought
Tolerant

Easy To Grow

Height: 1-3 feet
Spacing: 12-18 inches

Soil: Average, Well-Drained
Medium, Medium-Dry