

PERENNIAL

White Goldenrod

Solidago bicolor

PHOTOS &
MORE INFO

- Tolerant of extremely dry soil
- Blooms white, July-Oct
- Birds eat the seeds in autumn
- Native to dry open woods/fields
- AKA Silverrod

FUN FACTS:

It is the only goldenrod in the eastern US with white ray flowers. Has a long bloom time. Avoided by deer/rabbits.

COMPANIONS: Biennial Bee Blossom, Side-Oats Grama, Whorled Milkweed, Pussytoes, Rock Harlequin, Pearly Everlasting, Evening Primrose, Prairie Dropseed, Hoary Mt. Mint

Late
Summer

Deer
Resistant

Butterflies &
Specialist Bees

Seeds for Birds

Disturbed
Habitats

Salt
Tolerant

Drought
Tolerant

Height: 1-3 feet
Spacing: 1-2 feet

Soil: Avg, Poor, Heavy Clay
Med, Med-Dry, Dry