

PERENNIAL

Blue-Stem Goldenrod

Solidago caesia

GOLDENRODS
FOR SHADE

Arcadia
NATIVES

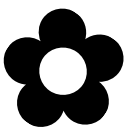

- Well-behaved woodland species
- Blooms yellow, Aug-Oct
- Loved by pollinators & birds
- Clump-forming; arching stems
- AKA Wreath Goldenrod

FUN FACTS:

Native habitats include bluff ledges & high quality upland woods dominated by oaks & other deciduous trees.

COMPANIONS: Bottlebrush Grass, Early Sunflower, White Snakeroot, Heart-Leaved Aster, Pennsylvania Sedge, Large-Leaved Aster, Meehan's Mint, Woodland Stonecrop

Late Summer

Deer
Resistant

Very Important to Pollinators

Seeds for Birds

Shaded Borders

Woodland
Gardens

Drought
Tolerant

Height: 1-3 feet
Spacing: 1-2 feet

Soil: Avg, Loam, Poor, Clay
Medium, Medium-Dry