

PERENNIAL

Giant Goldenrod

Solidago gigantea

MIXED FORB-GRAMINOID
WET MEADOW

Arcadia
NATIVES

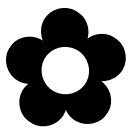

- Adaptable to various habitats
- Blooms yellow, Aug-Sept
- Food & cover for birds/insects
- Native to wetland edges/borders
- AKA Late Goldenrod

FUN FACTS:

Tall unbranched stems may lean during blooming period. Rhizomatous. Large, vigorous colonies support wildlife.

COMPANIONS: Cutleaf Coneflower, New England Aster, Rose Milkweed, Blue Vervain, Joe Pye Weed, Big Bluestem, Swamp Sunflower, Meadowsweet, Wild Senna, Ironweed

Late Summer

Deer Resistant

Attracts Pollinators

Food/Cover for Birds

Valued by Insects

Spreads Extensively

Prefers Moist Soil

Height: 3-7 feet
Spacing: 2-3 feet

Soil: Avg, Loam, Clay-Loam
Wet, Med-Wet, Med