

Tussock Sedge

Carex stricta

THE BENEFITS OF SEDGES

- Aquatic emergent (wetlands)
- Finely textured; fountain-like
- Tolerant of seasonal flooding
- Butterfly & moth host plant
- Excellent nesting habitat

FUN FACTS:

Spreads via seed & underground rhizomes. Tolerates standing water. Can become dominant in wetlands. High wildlife value!

COMPANIONS: Swamp Aster, Marsh Cinquefoil, Rose Milkweed, Obedient Plant, Blue Flag Iris, Arrowhead, Pickerelweed, Ditch Stonecrop, Boneset, Seedbox

Attractive
en masse

Deer
Resistant

Butterfly & Moth
Host Plant

Cover/Food
for Wildlife

Pond
Margins

Erosion Control

Wetland
Habitats

Height: 3-4 feet
Spacing: 3-4 feet

Soil: Clay, Mucky, Sandy
Wet, Medium-Wet