

PERENNIAL

Culver's Root

Veronicastrum virginicum

USDA & NRCS
PLANT FACTS PDF

- Open woods & wet meadows
- Blooms white, June-Aug
- Dramatic spires of flowers
- Attractive whorled leaves
- Prefers rich moist soil; adaptable

FUN FACTS:

Robust, clump-forming, & long-lived. May flop in dense shade. Tolerates brief drought. Deep taproot & spreads by rhizomes.

COMPANIONS: Virginia Mt. Mint, Rose Milkweed, Tall Coreopsis, Asters, Big Bluestem, Switchgrass, Joe Pye, Blue Vervain, Goldenrod, Bee Balm, Cardinal Flower, Ironweed

Summer
Blooms

Deer
Resistant

Attracts Pollinators

Slow to Establish

Back of the Border

Cut Flower
Arrangements

Prefers
Moist Soil

Height: 4-6 feet
Spacing: 2-3 feet

Soil: Avg, Rich, Loam, Clay
Med-Wet, Med, Med-Dry