

PERENNIAL

Common Blue Violet

Viola sororia

CLEISTOGAMOUS
FLOWERS

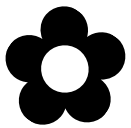

- Low-maintenance groundcover
- Blooms blue/purple, April-June
- Leaves are high in vitamins A & C
- Spreads readily; highly adaptable
- AKA Dooryard Violet

FUN FACTS:

Edible flowers can be used in salads, jelly, candy, & garnishes. Young leaves can be cooked as greens.

COMPANIONS: Woodland Phlox, Wild Geranium, Heartleaf Foamflower, Wild Strawberry, Golden Groundsel, Moss Phlox, Bellwort, Alumroot, Downy Wood Mint, Wild Petunia

Mid Spring
& Fall

Deer
Resistant

Fritillary
Host Plant

Seeds
Feed Birds

Rock
Gardens

Culinary
Uses

Living
Mulch

Height: 4 inches
Spacing: 6-8 inches

Soil: Avg, Rich, Loam, Clay
Med-Wet, Med, Med-Dry