

Purple Passionflower

Passiflora incarnata

GULF FRITILLARY

Arcadia NATIVES

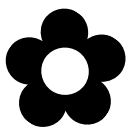

- Showy, fragrant flowers
- Blooms purple, June-Oct
- Large fruit has edible pulp
- Tendril-climbing vine
- AKA Maypop Vine

HELPFUL TIPS:

Spreads by root suckers. Root restriction may help increase flowers & fruiting. Benefits from loose mulch & well-drained soil.

OTHER NATIVE VINES: Wild Cucumber, American Hog Peanut, Virgin's Bower Clematis, Trumpet Vine, Coral Honeysuckle, American Hog Peanut, Wild Yam

Summer Flowers

Deer Resistant

Butterfly Host Plant

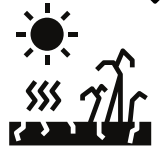

Food for Wildlife

Shelter From Strong Wind

Tendril-Climbing

Drought Tolerant

Height: 20 feet
Spacing: 3+ feet

Soil: Avg, Loam, Sandy, Clay
Med-Wet, Med, Med-Dry