

PERENNIAL

Allegheny Pachysandra

Pachysandra procumbens

- Shade tolerant groundcover
- Blooms white in early spring
- Spreads slowly by rhizomes
- Well-behaved; non-aggressive
- AKA Allegheny Spurge

Arcadia
NATIVES

JAPANESE
PACHYSANDRA
ALTERNATIVES

©DAVID STANG

Early Spring
Flowers

Deer
Resistant

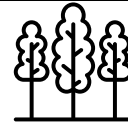

Compliments
Ephemerals

Front of the Border

Fragrant
Flowers

Woodland
Gardens

Avoid Overhead
Watering

Height: 6-8 inches
Spacing: 6-8 inches

Soil: Rich, Loam, Clay
Md-Wet, Md, Md-Dry