

PERENNIAL

Drummond's Aster

Symphyotrichum drummondii

ASTERS IN
THE GARDEN

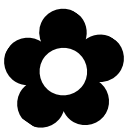

- Borders, woods, & prairies
- Blooms pale blue to white, late summer to early fall
- Host for Pearl Crescent
- Spreads vigorously by seed

FUN FACTS:

Like many asters, it can be cut back in late spring if shorter plants are desired. Found in both degraded & high quality habitats.

COMPANIONS: Bluestem Goldenrod, Black-Eyed Susan, Prairie Dropseed, Wild Mint, Early Sunflower, Switchgrass, Lyre-Leaved Sage, Zig Zag Goldenrod, Tall Coreopsis

Late Summer

Attracts Pollinators

Butterfly
Host Plant

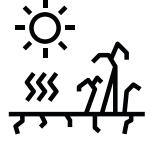

Seeds
for Birds

Woodland
Borders

Reseeds
Prolifically

Drought
Tolerant

Height: 2-4 feet
Spacing: 2-3 feet

Soil: Avg, Poor, Rocky, Loam
Med-Wet, Med, Med-Dry