

False Indigo

Amorpha fruticosa

RANGE MAP

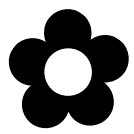

- Thrives in full sun & moist soil
- Blooms purple in early summer
- Useful for reclamation projects
- Thicket-forming & vigorous
- AKA Indigo Bush/Bastard Indigo

FUN FACTS:

Attracts specialist pollinators (Andrenid bees). Wetland plant tolerates brief flooding. Adaptable to poor, dry soil.

COMPANIONS: Meadow Rue, Swamp Rose, Wild Senna, Sensitive Fern, Elderberry, Rose Mallow, Swamp Milkweed, Giant Goldenrod, Wild Mint, Boneset, Helen's Flower

Early
Summer

Deer
Resistant

Butterfly
Host

Valued by Wildlife

Erosion
Control

Patio Pot/
Container

Fast
Growing

Height: 4-12 feet
Spacing: 4-6 feet

Soil: Average, Poor, Clay
Md-Wet, Md, Md-Dry, Dry