

Hairy Wood Chess

Bromus pubescens

SHADE
GARDENING

Arcadia
NATIVES

- Taller grass for shaded areas
- Useful in floodplains, rich upland deciduous woods, swamp edges
- Leaf blades up to 12" long
- AKA Hairy Woodland Brome

FUN FACTS:

Wild Turkey, Ruffed Grouse, & small mammals enjoy the seeds. Young plants may be browsed by deer or rabbits.

COMPANIONS: Woodland Sunflower, Late Purple Aster, Hairy Wood Mint, American Bellflower, Purple Giant Hyssop, Honewort, Fringed Loosestrife, Golden Groundsel

Prefers Light
Shade

Oat-Like
Seed Clusters

Riparian Buffer

Food for Wildlife

May Support
Box Turtles

Mix With Perennials

Woodland
Gardens

Height: 3-4 feet
Spacing: 1-2 feet

Soil: Fertile, Silt/Sand Loam
Medium-Wet, Medium