

PERENNIAL

Canada Anemone

Anemone canadensis

FACTS & LEGEND

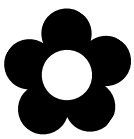

- Useful as hardy groundcover
- Blooms white, late spring
- Spreads voraciously in moist soil; more slowly in drier sites
- Deer resistant & clay tolerant
- Fast growing/spreading

HELPFUL TIPS:

Easily propagated by divisions. Avoid windy sites. Stems may flop if located in exposed areas or in too much shade.

COMPANIONS: Blue Mistflower, Wild Geranium, Great Blue Lobelia, Blazing Star, Ditch Stonecrop, Blue Vervain, Foxglove Beardtongue, Rose Milkweed

Late
Spring

Valuable To
Many Insects

Deer
Resistant

Attractive
Foliage

Enthusiastic
Rhizomes

Colony
Forming

Fast
Spreading

Height: 12 inches
Spacing: 6-12 inches

Soil: Rich, Clay, Loam
Medium-Wet, Medium