

PERENNIAL

Stiff Aster

Ionactis linariifolia

ASTERS- COLOR & LIFE
IN THE FALL GARDEN

- Rigid, conifer-like foliage texture
- Blooms blue/white, late summer
- Ideal for rock gardens/xeric sites
- Prefers full sun, dry acidic soil
- AKA Bristly or Stiff-Leaved Aster

FUN FACTS:

Compact growth habit. Has a long bloom time lasting about one month. Flowers are up to 1" across. Thrives in sandy soil.

COMPANIONS: Sweet Goldenrod, Lemon Bee Balm, Purple Lovegrass, Whorled Milkweed, Lyre-Leaf Sage, Pussytoes, Venus' Looking Glass, Eastern Agave, Ivory Sedge

Late Summer
Early Fall

Attracts Pollinators

Butterfly
Host Plant

Seeds
for Birds

Edge/Front of the Border

Rock
Gardens

Well-
Drained Soil

Height: 1-2 feet
Spacing: 12-18 inches

Soil: Gritty, Poor, Sandy
Med, Med-Dry, Dry