

ANNUAL/BIENNIAL

Lemon Mint

Monarda citriodora

NATIVE
RANGE MAP

Arcadia
NATIVES

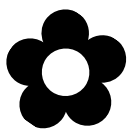

- Prefers full sun & rocky soil
- Blooms pink in summer
- Susceptible to powdery mildew
- Can reseed in the landscape
- AKA Lemon Bee Balm

FUN FACTS:

Crushed leaves will release a citrus aroma with hints of mint & oregano. Can be used in culinary dishes & teas.

COMPANIONS: Whorled Coreopsis, Prairie Dropseed, Northern Blazing Star, Field Pussytoes, Small Yellow Wild Indigo, Nodding Onion, Slender Mt. Mint, Sweet Goldenrod

Mid-Late
Summer

Pollinator
Support

Attracts Hummingbirds

Fragrant
Foliage

Short-Lived
Monarda

Well-Drained
Soil

Culinary Uses

Height: 2-3 feet
Spacing: 1-2 feet

Soil: Average, Poor, Rocky
Medium, Medium-Dry, Dry