

Northern Bayberry

Myrica pensylvanica

SPECIES
SPOTLIGHT

Arcadia
NATIVES

- Full Sun-Part Shade
- Fragrant leaves; culinary uses
- Waxy silvery-gray berries can be used in candle-making
- Adaptable; salt tolerant

FUN FACTS:

Semi-evergreen. Retains leaves in winter if protected from wind. Leaves turn dark & leathery in winter. Suckering.

MORE NATIVE SHRUBS: Sweet Pepperbush, Virginia Sweetspire, Fragrant Sumac, Northern Spicebush, Witch Hazel, Arrowwood Viburnum, Allegheny Serviceberry

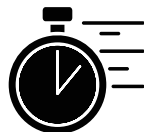

Dioecious
Male/Female

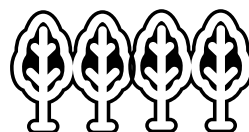

Deer
Resistant

Food/Shelter
For Birds

Fast
Growing

Useful for Hedgerow

Culinary Uses

Candle
Making

Height: 6-10 feet
Spread: 6-10 feet

Soil: Avg, Clay, Poor, Loam
Med-Moist, Med, Med-Dry