

BIENNIAL

Biennial Beeblossom

Oenothera gaura

PRIMROSE
MOTH

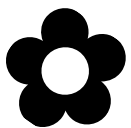

- Does well in disturbed areas
- Blooms pink/white, late summer
- Persists by reseeding
- Hosts Primrose & Gaura Moths
- Useful prairie pioneer species

FUN FACTS:

Basal rosette first year. May grow up to six feet tall second year. Flower moths hide on it during the day.

COMPANIONS: Early Sunflower, Slender Mt. Mint, New York Aster, Rosinweed, Foxglove Beardtongue, Early Goldenrod, Pink Muhly Grass, Common Milkweed, Hyssop Boneset

Late
Summer

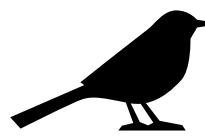

Deer
Resistant

Long-Tongued
Bees

Moth
Host Plant

Seeds
For Birds

Reseeds
Readily

Benefits from Disturbance

Height: 3-6 feet
Spacing: 1-2 feet

Soil: Clay, Loam, Rocky, Sand
Medium - Dry, Dry