

Interrupted Fern

Osmunda claytoniana

FERNS OF PENNSYLVANIA

Arcadia
NATIVES

- Woodlands or wetland margins
- Spreading-vase shape; deciduous
- Adapts to full sun with moisture
- Can hybridize with Royal Fern
- Forms colonies in ideal conditions

FUN FACTS:

With ample moisture can reach 5'+ in height. Fertile pinnae (leaflets) "interrupt" the middle of many fronds.

COMPANIONS: Wild Ginger, Blue Wood Sedge, Early Meadow Rue, Golden Alexanders, Wild Geranium, Great Waterleaf, Blue Mistflower, Great St. John's Wort, Hairy Wood Mint

Silvery-White
Fiddleheads

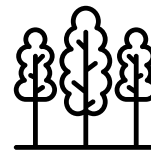

Deer/Rabbit
Resistant

Shelter for Wildlife

Heavy Shade
Tolerant

Woodland
Gardens

Erosion
Control

Moist Soil
Well-Drained

Height: 2-3 feet
Spacing: 1-2 feet

Soil: Avg, Rich, Acidic Loam
Med-Wet, Med, Med-Dry