

PERENNIAL

Heath Aster

Symphotrichum ericoides

WHITE
NATIVE FLOWERS

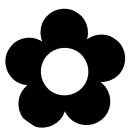

- Bushy, relatively compact
- Blooms white, late summer
- Tolerates poor soil & drought
- Deer resistant once established
- AKA White Heath Aster

FUN FACTS:

Flower color can vary. Benefits from competition to prevent flopping over. Mildew resistant. Spreads vigorously!

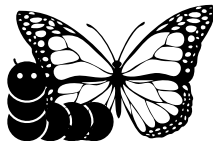

COMPANIONS: Smooth Blue Aster, Whorled Coreopsis, Stiff Goldenrod, Purple Prairie Clover, Butterfly Milkweed, Beardtongue, Fire Pink, Red Columbine, Prairie Dropseed

Late Summer

Attracts Pollinators

Butterfly
Host Plant

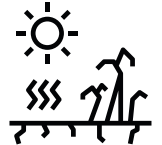

Seeds
for Birds

Large
Landscapes

Reseeds
Prolifically

Drought
Tolerant

Height: 1-3 feet
Spacing: 12-18 inches

Soil: Avg, Poor, Clay, Sandy
Medium, Medium-Dry, Dry