

PERENNIAL

Panicked Aster

Symphotrichum lanceolatum

NORTHERN CRESCENT

- Tall aster with showy flowers
- Blooms white, early fall
- Thrives in disturbed, moist soil
- Can form dense colonies
- AKA Lance-Leaved Aster

FUN FACTS:

Foliage may become purple during cold autumn weather. Excellent for use in low areas where water pools temporarily.

COMPANIONS: Strawberry Spinach, Giant Goldenrod, Rattlesnake Grass, Dogbane, Yellow Giant Hyssop, Virginia Mt. Mint, Blue Wild Indigo, Showy Tick Trefoil, Wingstem

Late Summer
Early Fall

Attracts Pollinators

Butterfly
Host Plant

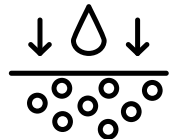

Seeds
for Birds

Colony
Forming

Disturbed
Habitats

Wet Soil
Tolerant

Height: 3-5 feet
Spacing: 2-3 feet

Soil: Avg, Loam, Clay, Rocky
Medium-Wet, Medium