

PERENNIAL

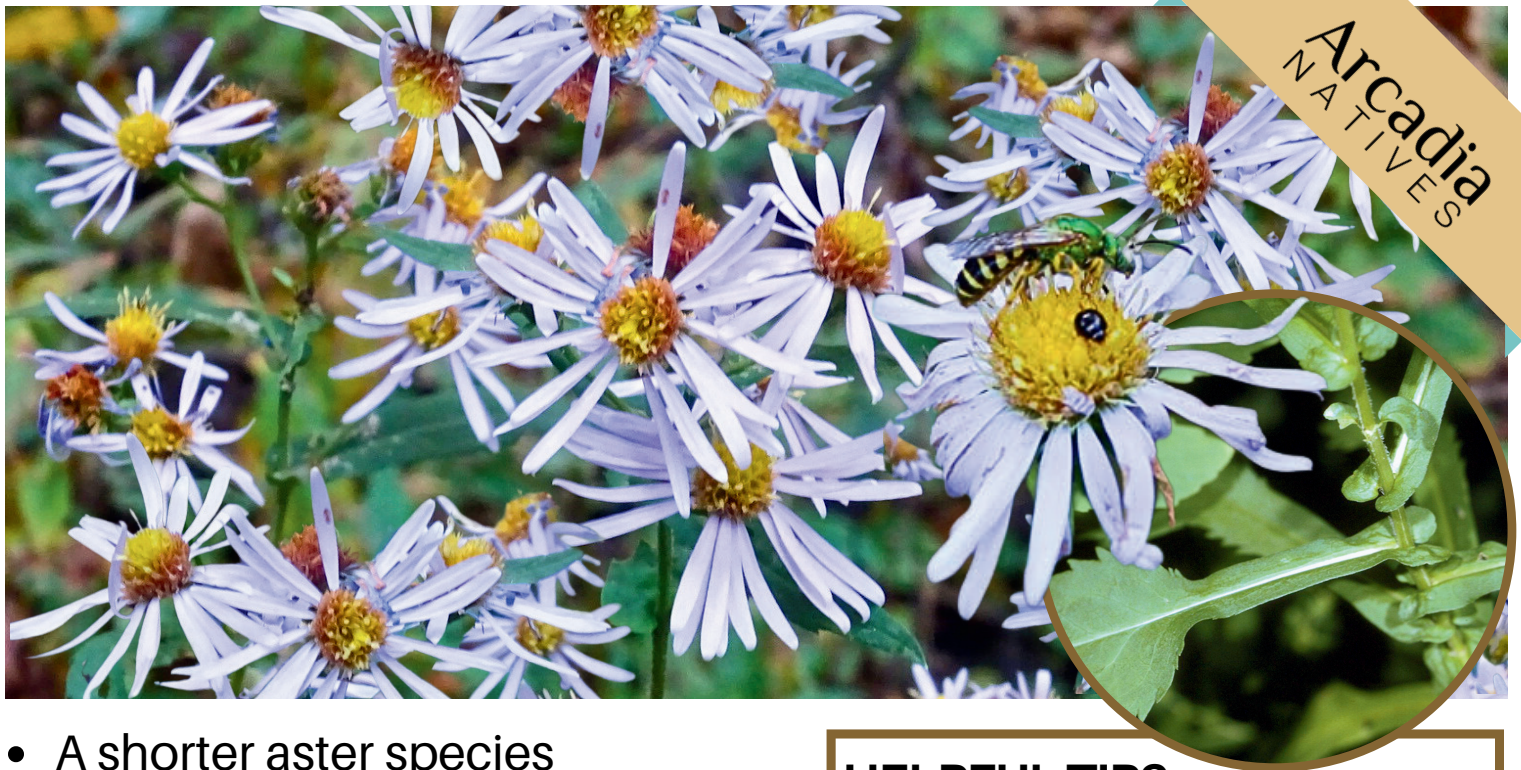

Crooked Aster

Symphyotrichum prenanthoides

IDENTIFY ASTERS

Arcadia
NATIVES

- A shorter aster species
- Blooms blue-violet, late summer
- Useful in riparian edge habitats
- Adaptable to urban settings
- Spreads by seed/short rhizomes

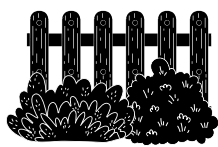

HELPFUL TIPS:

Consider creating multi-season interest & bloom succession by interplanting with spring bloomers & ferns.

COMPANIONS: New York Ironweed, Turtlehead, Jewelweed, Willowleaf Aster, Zig Zag Goldenrod, Rattlesnake Grass, Rose Milkweed, Wild Mint, Boneset, Sweet Joe Pye Weed

Late Summer
Early Fall

Front/Middle of Border

Attracts Pollinators

Butterfly
Host Plant

Urban Sites

Woodland
Gardens

Well-
Drained Soil

Height: 2-3 feet
Spacing: 1-2 feet

Soil: Average, Clay, Loam
Medium-Wet, Medium